

	Class	Location	Audience	Description and Notes
9AM	Level Up Together w/ Dakota Morosi (Western Region Chief)	Fire Bowl (weather permitting) or Dining Hall	All youth	Listen in and ask questions of the Western Region Chief Dakota Morosi. Dakota will share what the future of the OA looks like and how you can play a role in it among other topics. The 9am version of this session will be directed towards youth while the 11am version will be for adults.
	How to be an Adviser	Eagle's Nest or Dining Hall (weather permitting)	All interested adults	Hear from experienced advisers including Nisqually Lodge Adviser Gene Victor as they talk about how best to support and develop youth and youth leadership in the OA and Scouting.
10AM	Polestar Induction Leadership Training	Eagle's Nest	All interested in inductions	Why do we undergo an Ordeal to join the OA or participate in ceremonies? How can we make the induction more meaningful? This session will be an introduction to the new National Polestar Induction Leadership training. All current or aspiring Lodge officers and those involved or interested in staffing Ordeals or ceremonies should attend this valuable conversation starter.
	Event Planning Matrix	Dining Hall	All interested Arrowmen	Whether it's for a Patrol of 5 or for over 300 Arrowmen from across two states, event planning of any degree is something that takes time to get right. Hear from experienced leaders as they share their own event planning experience, then actually plan an event of your own with a small group.
	Craft Power Hour (Button Blankets + Patch Design)	Craft Shelter	All interested Arrowmen	Button Blankets are a rich feature of Pacific Northwest Native American culture and are a treasured element of the Order of the Arrow here in Section W-1N. Learn more about Button Blankets in this class.
11AM	Level Up Together	Fire Bowl (Dining Hall)	All Adults	Listen in and ask questions of the Western Region Chief Dakota Morosi. Dakota will share what the future of the OA looks like and how you can play a role in it among other topics. The 9am version of this session will be directed towards youth while the 11am version will be for adults.
	Ceremonies Workshop	Eagle's Nest	All interested Arrowmen	Meet and collaborate with Ceremonialists from across the section. Give and take all the ideas you can during this section-wide ceremonies practice. All Arrowmen (regardless of Ceremonies experience) are welcome and encouraged to attend.

	Wask West	Field Games (organized team sports) Smash Bros. Button Blanket on display	Kit Carson Field Nearby shelter Smash Bros. in Eagle's Nest	A variety of field games will be available to play in Kit Karson field. There is also a possibility for current Smash Bros. players to give tutorials to aspiring or newer players.